

Dr. Michael Menhart

Chief Economist, Munich Re

„I am looking forward to see politicians, the finance world and industry leaders at the Berlin Aviation Summit all flying in formation in their efforts to build a sustainable future for aviation. Munich Re is happy to contribute by supporting new technology solutions for the highly relevant air transport sector.“

Dr. Michael Menhart is Munich Re Group’s Chief Economist and Head of the Economics, Sustainability & Public Affairs Central Division, and he reports to the CEO.

In this role, he is responsible for Economic and Insurance Market Research at Munich Re. He also leads the Corporate Responsibility team and the Group’s Government Relations activities.

Before joining Munich Re in 2005, Dr. Menhart worked as a business consultant at McKinsey & Company, where he advised global companies operating in the High-Tech and insurance sector.

Dr. Menhart graduated with a degree in Economics from the University of Augsburg, where he also obtained his doctorate from the Faculty of Business and Economics with a dissertation on innovation dynamics in the German insurance market. He obtained his M.A. in Economics at Wayne State University in Detroit, USA.
