

Frank Neumann

Director, Institute for Infrastructure, Environment and Innovation (IMEU)

---

Frank Neumann is the Director of the Institute for Infrastructure, Environment, and Innovation (IMEU) based in Brussels and in Amsterdam and works on innovative clean energy projects and energy transition in the EU and Asia, in addition to maritime innovations and sustainable aviation.

In 2017, he founded the U-LTA platform (Upscaling Lighter-Than-Air aviation), a European and International co-operation project financed by 15 industry and knowledge partners, related to LTA for and hybrid/HAPS platforms for surveillance, cargo and aid functions.

Before working at IMIEU, he worked as a senior advisor for the Dutch Ministry of Public Works and as a consultant to the OECD.

He holds a Masters in Public Administration from Leiden University and a Doctorate in Environmental Management of Erasmus University. He was a fellow at the Woodrow Wilson School of Public Affairs of Princeton University.